View of The Argentario

The island of Giannutri

The island of Giglio

In the Argentario, in the most beautiful part of Tuscany, wild panoramic and mediterranean.

*“The Pellicano Hotel”
A window view upon Tuscany*

This resort set up in 1965 was wanted by a couple who were in love, a pilot and a fascinating woman of the American jet set. Today it still gives the sensational feeling of a house built to host friends.

This hotel has a splendid combination of a unique position and a marvellous sea which is a natural background to the terraced gardens of the hotel. The scents here are very strong because the Mediterranean greenery is blooming and there is a sea view glancing through oaks, centuries-old olive trees, cypresses, bougonvilles and lavender.
